

ARAB FINGERS STORIES

The Little Lantern

الْفَانُوسُ الصَّغِيرُ

من ٤ إلى ٧ سنوات · Ages 4–7

Ramadan is here and Ahmad hangs his little lantern on the door. When guests arrive, he learns that the sweetest part of the month is sharing it. A gentle Ramadan story for the days when the house smells of qatayef.

جَاءَ شَهْرُ رَمَضَانَ، وَزَيَّنَ أَحْمَدُ الْمَنْزِلَ.

jaa'a shahru ramaDaana, wa zayyana aHmadu-l-manzil.

The month of Ramadan came, and Ahmad decorated the house.

عَلَّقَ قَانُوساً صَغِيراً عَلَى الْبَابِ.

'allaqa faanuusan Saghiiran 'ala-l-baab.

He hung a little lantern on the door.

قَالَتِ الْجَدَّةُ: الْقَانُوسُ يُضِيءُ الطَّرِيقَ
لِلضُّيُوفِ.

qaalati-l-jaddatu:-l-faanuusu yuDii'u-T-Tariiqā li-D-Duyuuf.

Grandma said: the lantern lights the way for our guests.

صَنَعَتِ الْأُمُّ قَطَائِفَ لَذِيذَةً فِي الْمَطْبَخِ.

sana'ati-l-ummu qaTaayifa ladhiidatan fi-l-maTbakh.

Mother made delicious qatayef in the kitchen.

طَرَقَ الضُّيُوفُ الْبَابَ، فَرِحَ أَحْمَدُ وَرَكَضَ
إِلَيْهِمْ.

Taraqa-D-Duyuufu-l-baaba, faRiHa aHmadu wa rakada ilayhim.

The guests knocked on the door, and Ahmad ran to them, delighted.

جَلَسَ الْعَائِلَةُ وَالضُّيُوفُ عَلَى مَائِدَةٍ وَاسِعَةٍ.

jalasa-l-'aa'ilatu wa-D-Duyuufu 'alaa maa'idatin waasi'a.

The family and the guests sat at a wide table.

شَارَكَ أَحْمَدُ الْقَطَايِفَ مَعَ صَدِيقِهِ.

shaaraka aHmadu-l-qaTaayifa ma'a Sadiiqih.

Ahmad shared the qatayef with his friend.

قَالَتِ الْجَدَّةُ: أَذُّ طَعَامٍ هُوَ الَّذِي نُشَارِكُهُ.

qaalati-l-jaddatu: adhdhu Ta'aamin huwa-l-ladhii nushaarikuh.

Grandma said: the tastiest food is the food we share.

THE LESSON · الْعِبْرَةُ

Sharing is what turns a good month into a beautiful one.

الْمُشَارَكَةُ تَجْعَلُ الشَّهْرَ الْجَمِيلَ أَجْمَلَ.

More free stories, worksheets and games — arabfingers.site/stories